HAMM RECEIVES ROTC AWARD

CHARLESTON -- Caroly Hamm, daughter of Donald and Catherine Hamm of Havana, received the Daughter of Founders and Patriots of American Award at Eastern Illinois University's Army Reserve Officers' Training Corp (ROTC) Commissioning and Awards Ceremony April 27.

The award is given each year to a basic course cadet for demonstrating excellence in military and scholastic endeavors.

Established in 1980, EIU's ROTC program offers students, majoring in any field of study that EIU offers, the opportunity to participate in a leadership development program which culminates in a commission (if offered) as an officer in the United States Army, Army Reserve or Army National Guard.

EIU's ROTC program is under the direction of Lt. Col. David Sims, Jr., chair of the department of military science.

A freshman psychology major, Hamm is a 1994 graduate of Lewistown Community High School.

Eastern, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary in 1994-95, is a comprehensive university with more than 10,500 students
